PANEL INTERIOR DOORS

Simpson chalkboard panel doors are perfect for families on the go, whether used in the kitchen, pantry or a kid's room. Children can post artwork from school or create original works of art directly on the door itself. And mom and dad will like it as a place to post grocery and to-do lists or simply as a place to write reminders for other members of the family.

Available in three standard designs and five standard wood species, there is an option to match most any existing home interior. And it's exactly the kind of creative idea you'd expect from Simpson.
